WEST PALM BEACH, FL (November 18, 2016) – Tony® and Emmy Award®-winning comedian, actor, producer, writer and director Billy Crystal announced this week the first set of shows on his upcoming 30+ city US tour Spend the Night with Billy Crystal. His show is set to come to the Raymond F. Kravis Center for the Performing Arts Sunday, January 22, 2017. Tickets will be available to the general public beginning Monday, November 21 at 10 am.

“This show is unique. There’s stand up, and ‘sit down’ which gives me great freedom to tell stories, show film clips and talk about my life and career and the world as I see it,” said Crystal. “It’s loose, unpredictable and intimate. The most fun I’ve had on stage in a long time.”

A stand-up comic turned television star, Crystal found fame as a movie funnyman with starring roles in blockbusters such as When Harry Met Sally, City Slickers and Analyze This. He was much loved as the acclaimed nine-time host of the Academy Awards, an achievement topped only by Bob Hope, who hosted the Oscars 19 times. Also an award winning author, Crystal’s latest memoir, Still Foolin’ ‘Em: Where I’ve Been, Where I’m Going, and Where the Hell Are My Keys? was an instant NY Times best seller.
