

Kravis Center for the Performing Arts Is Recruiting Volunteer Ushers for Sensational 2017-2018 Season

Volunteer Orientation Will Be October 26 at 6 pm

(West Palm Beach, FL – October 16, 2017) In preparation for its star-packed 2017-2018 Season starting later this month, the Raymond F. Kravis Center for the Performing Arts is seeking additional Volunteer Ushers.

“With over 400 volunteers, the Kravis Center knows that the show would not go on without the dedicated corps of people who donate their valuable time to the Center,” says Usher Coordinator Karole Cooney. “While many volunteers have been with us since opening night, we are now seeking applicants to join the ranks and become an integral part of this vibrant theater.”

To become an usher, applicants must complete a training course about Kravis Center operations. The course includes information about emergency evacuations, seating, show procedures and customer service skills.

The Volunteer Usher Orientation will be held at the Kravis Center’s Persson Hall, in the Cohen Pavilion on Thursday, October 26, at 6 pm.

Anyone interested in becoming a Volunteer Usher is encouraged to download a printable Volunteer Application from the website, fill it out and bring it to the orientation program. If unable to attend the orientation, please mail the application to Beth Foster, Kravis Center for the Performing Arts, 701 Okeechobee Blvd., West Palm Beach, FL 33401.

The application is available online by going to kravis.org/volunteer.
