The celebrity-packed event will be presented on Saturday, February 11, at 7 pm.

Storm Large

Storm Large shot to national prominence in 2006 as a finalist on the CBS show Rock Star: Supernova, where she built a fan base that follows her around the world to this day. Highlights of her 2016-17 season include debuts with the Atlanta, Baltimore, and BBC Symphony Orchestras, as well as return engagements with the National Symphony Orchestra and Detroit Symphony Orchestra. Recent highlights include engagements with the New York Pops, Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra, Houston Symphony, RTÉ Dublin, and Toronto Symphony Orchestra, as well as performances at Carnegie Hall and the United States Capitol.

Storm made her debut with the band Pink Martini in 2011, singing four sold-out concerts with the National Symphony Orchestra at the Kennedy Center in Washington, DC. She continues to tour internationally with the band. Her memoir, Crazy Enough, was released by Simon and Schuster in 2012 and was named Oprah's Book of the Week. In the fall of 2014, Storm & Le Bonheur released a record designed to capture their sublime and subversive interpretations of the American Songbook. Entitled simply Le Bonheur, the recording is a collection of tortured and titillating love songs: beautiful, familiar, yet twisted ...much like the lady herself.

"We continue to gather a roster of top talent to join us in paying tribute to our all-star silver anniversary celebration and Storm Large is another incredible addition to this memorable evening," says Lee Bell, the Kravis Center's Senior Director of Programming.

Sponsors for the Kravis Center's 25th Anniversary NIGHT OF STARS include Stephen Brown and Jamie Stern, Henni and John Kessler, Dorothy and Sidney Kohl and SBA Communications Corporation.
